Look to Web Site for Ways to Help

Goods and services still needed for the northwest Illinois build

Freeport, Ill., 5 September 2009 – Though the volunteer roster for the northwest Illinois Extreme Makeover: Home Edition build filled up in just four hours, there are still plenty of ways people can help.

“We have a list of goods and services needed available on the Web site,” said Jess Hasken, donations and materials coordinator for the project. “As anyone who watches the show knows, each family and each house is different, so there are a lot of ‘little’ things, like books and people who can sew, that we still need to find.”

The goods and services needed list can be found on the www.extremehaskenconstruction.com Web site – click “what we need” in the left-hand menu and scroll to the bottom of the page.

“Even if you don’t have or do anything on that list, we invite you to give what you can – even $5 will help us toward our goal of raising $75,000 to help buy project materials and services that aren’t donated,” Hasken said.
