'Extreme Makeover: Home Edition' Update

Volunteer and Spectator Transportation for Reveal Day

There is no set schedule for the day and no guarantee that any specific stars or other individuals will be onsite at any particular time. The family will return sometime in the afternoon for the "Move That Bus" moment.

Once on site, individuals will be directed to locations in the viewing area by television personnel. First-come, first-served may not apply in all situations in terms of your location to view the Reveal. The production staff will be in control, and they will determine who they want, and where, for their production purposes.

Buses will run as previously published:

Volunteers – 24 hours/day for volunteers

Spectators – 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Volunteer buses run from behind Rafters in Lena. Volunteers who have worked any shift during the build may come to Rafters and board the volunteer bus. Volunteers must wear their blue shirts (or gray Hasken shirts, for trade leads) or have their names cleared by the check-in tent in order to board the volunteer bus. Workers reporting for their shift must check in at the volunteer check-in tent, as always.

Spectator buses run from Lincoln Mall in Freeport and Sullivans in Lena. Any other buses must have prior approval or they will be turned away at the road barricade. Call 815.232.2121, x221 if needed.

Be aware that buses may be halted for periods of time during the day as the television program is being filmed. This may result in buses not leaving from the bus stations and/or buses being delayed at road barricades until cleared.

Volunteers can continue to visit the catering tent as needed. There will be no concessions available for spectators: please come prepared with water, etc. if needed. DO NOT BRING LAWN CHAIRS.
